BENJAMIN RAMSEY.

PHILADELPHIA.

Extract of a letter from Wilkſborough, Nov. 8, 1788.

"A Supreme Court was opened laſt Tueſday in this place, before their honors the Chief Juſtice and Judge Raſh, the firſt ever held for the county of Luzerne. It gave me pleaſure to ſee the order and decorum that prevailed---nothing could exceed the reſpectful ſilence and attention of all ranks of people while the court was ſitting. I ought not to omit mentioning, that the ſheriff and coroner of the county with the principal inhabitants of the place, met the Judges about ſeven miles off, and eſcorted them into the town.

"You doubtleſs recollect the outrage upon Col. Pickering, in the month of June laſt, who was ſeized in the dead of night, and carried off as an hoſtage for John Franklin, who had been apprehended on a charge of treaſon, and was then confined in the gaol of your city. The perſons concerned in this daring violation of the laws, were all indicted. I think twenty five, tho' only ſixteen have as yet been taken and brought to juſtice. Of this laſt number nine ſubmitted to the charge; the remaining ſeven pleaded not guilty, and three of them were acquitted, the evidence as to them not being ſatisfactory.

"It appeared plain from the trial, that a few perſons of age and expierence had been at the bottom of the buſineſs: while thoſe who were the actual inſtruments in ſeizing his perſon were moſtly boys, or very young men. The court accordingly diſtinguiſhed properly in their puniſhments. They impoſed a fine of twenty ſhillings upon the latter, and upon the former, each, as they were very poor, only a fine of one hundred dollars, with impriſonment for ſix months; except in the caſe of a very ancient man, whom they fined only fifty dollars, without impriſonment. The three perſons who were acquitted by the jury were bound to their good behaviour for three years, as they were dangerous characters.

"John Franklin too, whoſe impritonment had been the cauſe of the abovementioned riot, was alſo indicted by the grand jury of high treaſon, in endeavouring to ſubvert the government, and to erect a new and independant ſtate in the room and ſtead thereof. Being brought before the court, and aſked if he was ready for his trial, he ſaid, He was not; and informed their Honors, he had refered his defence to Meſſrs. Biddle and Clymer; the former of whom then roſe, and requeſted the trial might be put off, as the priſoner had three material witneſſes, who had been duly ſummoned, and were then abſent, and lived at or near Tioga. The Judges taking the circumſtance into conſideration, granted the motion, upon the priſoner's ſwearing to the above facts in open court, and alſo, that the witneſſes were eſſentially neceſſary for his defence. He was therefore remanded to the cuſtody of the ſheriff, and a habeas corpus granted to convey him to Eaſton gaol. The goal in this town is by no means a place of ſecurity; and the act of aſſembly requires, in that caſe, that the ſheriff ſhould convey the priſoner to the goal of the county of Northampton.

"The Judges having received information, that Jacob Johnſon, who officiates as a miniſter of the goſpel here, had frequently made uſe of ſeditious language in private company, and inflammatory ſpeeches from the pulpit, ſent for him; and finding the information to be well founded, bound him to his good behaviour till the next court of oyer and terminer.

"Nothing would have ſo great tendency to reſtore peace and tranquility to this country, as the repeal of the ſuſpending law. I believe if this were done, and the actual ſettlers before the decree at Trenton confirmed in their poſſeſſions, you would have no further trouble with the people here. And what is of equal importance to the ſtate, the landholders in the upper parts of Northumberland, and the lower parts of Luzerne, would be infinitely benefitted by it. Such a meaſure would induce ſettlers to venture into theſe parts, which have hitherto remained unoccupied, from an apprehenſion of being involved in perpetual war and confuſion with the Wyoming people, and conſequently would render lands doubly valuable.

"The aſſembly ought to go a ſtep further, in my opinion, in order alſo to quiet the Pennſylvania claimants. Whenever a government finds it neceſſary to violate the rights of private property, the individuals whoſe rights are thus ſacrificed to the public good, ought to receive a juſt, if not a generous compenſation. Inſtead therefore of giving the Pennſylvanians an equivalent in lands in other parts of the ſtate, the beſt method would be to allow them an handſome ſum for their land that have been taken from them. If the government cannot pay them at preſent, the debt ought to be well funded certificates and intereſt paid thereon, until the principal can be diſcharged. This appears to me the only effectual way of reſtoring peace, promoting the intereſt of the country in general, and quieting all parties."

To be rented, for a Term of Years,

SUNDRY Lots in the city of Philadelphia, and parcels of Land near the ſame, viz. 1. A city ſquare, bounded eaſtward and weſtward by 7th and 8th ſtreets, and northward and ſouthward by Cheſnut and Walnut-ſtreets, (ſave a ſmall part thereof at the north-eaſt corner) now in the tenure of William Eckhart, his term expires March next. 2. A large lot on the ſouth ſide of Cheſnut-ſtreet, at the diſtance of about 10 feet from the eaſt wall of General Dickinſon's houſe to Sixth-ſtreet, extending from the ſaid Cheſnut-ſtreet, northward, to a 36 feet wide ſtreet. 3. Forty acres of land on Wiſſahickon road, adjoining Standley's graſs grounds, now in the tenure of John Manderfield, his leaſe will expire next ſpring. 4. Three hundred acres of land, lying in the Fork of, or between two croſs-roads, from Germantown road to Frankford road, oppoſite, on one ſide, the Widow Lawrence's, and on the other, to Conrad Haller's and adjoining Godfrey Twelve's land; lately in the tenure of Daniel Larzen, who is gone off. For terms, apply to LEWIS WEISS, in Arch-ſtreet, or to CHARLES JARVIS, in Second-ſtreet.

RICHMOND, (Virginia) Nov. 12.

Extract of a letter dated Green-County (North-Carolina) October 25, 1788.

"On the 17th instant, Gallespy's Fort, (below the mouth of Little river) on Holstein, a little after sunrise was furiously attacked by about 300 Indians under the command of John Watts. The few men in the Fort made a gallant resistance; but being overpowered by numbers, and their ammunition being expended, the Indians rushed over the walls, or rather the roofs of the cabins, which made part of the Fort; great was the horror of the scene that then ensued.—The best accounts say our loss is 28 persons, mostly women and children, as several of the men belonging to the Fort were abroad at the time.

'This body, we are told, is part of a much larger one now encamped at Chota, composed of both Creeks and Cherokees, said to be under the direction of Alexander M'Gillivray. And I am just now informed, that one thousand Indians have crossed the Tenasee, in two divisions, and that one of them had attacked Major Houston's fort, and the other was near Captain White's, on the north side of Holstein. The whole of our militia are under marching orders, and Col. Kenedy has already set out with those that were first ready; resolving to defend the country to the last extremity. So you may shortly expect to hear of a bloody scene indeed.

'Major King is returned from the Middle Settlements, and gives but little encouragement of a prospect of peace; he went by the way of Swannanno, and proceeded through several towns, and returned down the Tenasee, until he met with a party of Indians returning from Gallespy's fort. They dissuaded him from proceeding to Chota, saying the Indians in the main camp were angry and might kill him The party of Indians gave the Major a relation of what passed at the attack on our fort, and said the Indians have several prisoners.

'Colonel Martin since his unsuccessful expedition is become unpopular—Sevier is yet in confinement—North Carolina, notwithstanding the encouragement given hy her Executive in July last, supports us but feebly; and it will be our hard lot singly and alone to contend with the combined forces of two numerous tribes, well supplied by a neighbouring State, and it is said countenanced by Congress. It is a hard case to condemn an individual unheard; but far worse a whole people, and the more so, when barbarians are to be the executioners, and the innocent to suffer with the guilty. —The humanity and justice of the rulers of the nation will surely revolt at such consequences, when they are fully and rightly informed.'

On Saturday last, the legislature of this Commonwealth appointed the honorable Richard Henry Lee and William Grayson, esquires, Representatives in the Senate of the United States.

ALEXANDRIA, (Virginia) Nov. 13.

Last Monday night commenced one of the severest gales of wind ever remembered here, which continued till Tuesday morning The damage done to the shipping lying in this port, warehouses, wharves, &c. is very great.—The ship Torbay, Captain Boyd, at Mr. Watson's wharf, loaded for London, was sunk near the wharf, and her cargo damaged.—A brig belonging to Messrs. Jenckes, Windsor & Co. at Col. Ramsay's wharf, was thrown on her beam ends and drove on shore.—A sloop belonging to Mr. Caverley sunk.—Several small craft shared the same fate.

It is reported that many vessels in the bay and rivers have foundered; and, from the violence of the wind, we are apprehensive the report is too true.

Arrivals. Sloop Charming Polly, from Philadelphia; brig Eliza, Read, Hispaniola; sloop Betsey, Pitts, Bermuda; sloop Becca, Cartwright, Rhode Island.

ANNAPOLIS, November 13.

Extract of a letter from a gentlemen in Fredericksburg to his friend in this city, dated November 4, 1788.

'On the other side is a resolution, carried ayes 85, noes 39, which will shew that we repent of our folly of adopting a constitution without previous amendments—But, since it is done, the assembly are proceeding to organize it agreeably to the constitution, at least as they understand it, that is, to have the electors and the delegates chosen by the people, by districts, the elected to be residentees; this was nearly the unanimous vote; but, by what rule the districts are to be measured is yet in doubt—The delegates have at present adopted the rule by that of the militia—But, as they had but a majority of six, and the senate are opposed to it, I expect the rule of tythes will be their guide—that is, to take in three fifths of the blacks, the which I conceive to be right, as our delegation is increased by that rule, and we are also to be taxed accordingly.

'Whereas the convention of this state did, &c. ratify a constitution for the United States, and did also declare that sundry amendments to exceptionable parts of the same ought to be adopted: And whereas the subject matter of the amendments agreed to by the said convention involves all the great unalienable and essential rights, liberties and privileges, of freemen, many of which, if not cancelled, are rendered insecure under the said constitution until they shall be altered and amended: Resolved, as the opinion of this committee, That for quieting the minds of the good citizens of this commonwealth, and securing their dearest rights and privileges, and preventing those disorders which must arise under a government not founded in the confidence of people, application be made to the Congress of the United States, so soon as they shall assemble under the said constitution, to call a convention for proposing amendments to the same according to the mode therein directed,

'Resolved, also, That a circular letter be written to the different legislatures, &c. on the foregoing subject.

'Ayes 85
'Noes 39

'46 Majority.

'These resolutions were introduced by Mr. Henry—opposed by F. Corbin—an amendment offered, to recommend it to the delegates in congress to have amendments offered by the states considered by Congress, and, when amended, to be submitted to the consideration of the legislatures, as in the alternative mentioned in the 5th article.

'You are not to suppose that thirty nine members approved of this—but that number divided for the amendment—because many thought Henry's resolution contained reflections on the late Virginia and continental conventions—but I do not think six members would have voted for amendments by Congress instead of a convention. I was in the house and heard the great ground of objection applied to the language.'

BOSTON, November 13.

Captain Bennifon, in the floop Ranger, bound from St. John's to New-York, having on board 55 fouls, amongft whom were 30 women and children, met with a fevere gale of wind on the 11th of October, in which fhe overfet and lay on her beam ends for half an hour, when they cut away her maffs, in order to right her, but as the ballaft was fhifted, fhe did not right for a confiderable time. During their fituation fhe loft one man, and ftove in her companion doors, which let in fo much water, that it deftroyed all the bread and provifions, and the rolling of the veffel ftove the water caffks, fo that they were in the greateft diftrefs for the want of that article, befides being deftitute of a lodging, as all their goods and cloathr were torn and jammed to pieces under the ballaft; the women and children were frequently under the water, of which the veffel had taken in fo much, that they remained in this fituation until morning, when the gale abated. Having loft all their rigging, fails and fpars, they ripped open their bed-ticks, and fewed them together; thefe, with fome fheets, made fomething like a fail, which they hoifted on an oar with fome bed-cords. They continued in this fituation till the 14th, when two fchooners and a brig fpoke with them, but could not give them any affiftance. On the 16th Captain George Sands, of the fnow Salter, fpoke with them, and gave them a ftudding-fail, two fmall fpars, two gallons of rum, and twenty gallons of water. On the 20th, Captain William Worth, in the fchooner Friendfhip, from New-York, bound to Narraguagues, fell in with them, and took on board all that wifhed to leave the wreck, which were 32 fouls, and fupplied thofe who remained with provifions, water, and every thing elfe in his power: the veffels parted from each other about funfet, 15 leagues N. E. from Cape Ann. About eight o'clock the fame evening, a fevere gale of wind overtook Capt. Worth, and blew with fuch violence, that his veffel could not carry any fail, and he accordingly hove to, and made fo great a drift, that his veffel would undoubtedly have gone afhore, had not both maffs been cut away, and both anchors let go. The next day the gale abated, when they rigged jury-maffs, and hoifted what fail they had faved, and providentially arrived in Narraguagues in 48 hours, where they remained until the 6th of November, when Mr. Ebenezer Smith procured them a paffage to this port. They arrived here laft Saturday. We are informed Captain Bennifon efcaped being loft, by getting under the lee of fome iflands, and lafhing 15 grind-ftones together, which ferved as an anchor.

We cannot omit (fay the paffengers who came with Captain Worth) acknowledging our gratitude to the Captain, for we are fure, under Providence, he was the inftrument which faved us, and fincerely wifh he may be rewarded for his feeling and humanity.

HARTFORD, November 10.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in the ftate of Rhode-Iland, of a late date.

'Our general affembly, which fat at Providence laft week, finifhed their buffinefs, according to cuftom, on Saturday evening —did not make a houfe before Thurfday. They will call no convention; have ordered the one fourth part of the four per cent. ftate notes to be paid off in paper at par —ordered Goveror Clinton's letter to be publifhed, and fent to the town clerks of every town, and town meetings to be called to choofe delegates to meet delegates from other ftates, to confider on amendments to the new conftitution. They have adjourned to the laft of December, to meet at South Kingfton.'

POUGHKEEPSIE, November 18.

Laft Tuefday morning came on from the fouth-eaft, the fevereft ftorm known for many years in thefe parts---it blew very hard from eight to eleven o'clock, when the wind kept increafing till about two in the afternoon; at which time it blew fo violent, that it was with difficulty a perfon could withftand its fury, efpecially on the wharves. We are informed much damage has been done in the country, feveral buildings being unroofed, ftacks of hay and grain, trees and fences blown down. A floop belonging to Kinderhook, Captain Prime, was driven on the flats at this place, but was got off without receiving much damage, and a fchooner was driven afhore a little above this place, fuppofed to be one that was drifting by when the ftorm began, and no perfon on board----alfo a fmall floop, oppofite Red-Hook, and is faid to have beat to pieces againft the rocks.

NEW-YORK, November 21.

Governor Chittenden, of Vermont, by proclamation, dated the 20th ult. has appointed Thurfday, the 27th of November inft. to be obferved as a day of public thankfgiving and praife throughout that ftate; and among other matters, humbly to implore Divine Providence, "That he may direct to and blefs fuch means as may be neceffary to put into execution the federal government of the United States, and eftablifh it on a permanent bafis;" and that he may be pleafed to order, in the courfe of events, that the United States offer their friendfhip and protection to Vermont "on equitable terms, fo that we may be enabled to join with them in perfect union," &c. &c.

We hear from Bennington, and other parts of Vermont, that the harveft in that country has been as plentiful as has been known for many years.

By accounts from the northward we learn, that there has been lately a confiderable fall of fnow, accompanied by a pretty fmart froft.

BALTIMORE, Novemher 14.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Georgia, to his friend in Frederick-town, dated the 22d of September laft.

"We are, at prefent, in a ftate of anxiety and fufpence, becaufe of the uncertainty of the termination of the treaty which is now about to be held. The Indians,* we are informed, are extremely obftinate, and will infift hard to hold the land that was once ceded to us by a part of the nation, and the Commiffioners will, I fuppofe, make a demand of another ceffion of land, as a compenfation for the injury we have fuftained by the incurfions they have made this laft year.

"A gentleman of my acquaintance, from Auguffa, who was at my houfe a few days paft, informed me, that official letters had arrived from Congrefs, to the Executive, inftructing them to offer fuch terms as they thought proper: and if the Indians would not accede to them, that they would furnifh them with 2800 men, pay them, and find them cloathing, arms and ammunition. If this can be depended on, which I believe it may, there is a great probability that a war will take place, which we fhould be well able to fupport, for there never were greater crops in any country, than have been made in Georgia this feafon. It is fuppofed corn will fell at one fhilling per bufhel, and we have large ftocks of cattle: But ftill it would, in fome meafure, injure this country for the prefent; but the large quantities of good land we fhould obtain would more than compenfate for the fatigue and expence of the war." * Creeks.

PHILADELPHIA, November 26.

POST-OFFICE, Philadelphia, 23d November, 1788.

Notice is hereby given to the merchants and others, that an expref arrived this evening, informing that the Southern Mail, due on Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock, was robbed by three Negroes, between the Head of Elk and Kinkade's tavern, near Iron hill.

The merchants are requefted to purfue every meafure in their power to fecure themfelves, and difcover the villains.

On Saturday laft the Hon. the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this commonwealth adjourned until the firft Tuefday in February next, then to meet in this city.

We are informed a number of anti fœderalifts have got into the legiflature of a neighbouring ftate, from fœderal counties, by putting on an appearance of acquiefcence and moderation. Let this be a leffon to thofe worthy fœderalifts, who may have thought of running men who have once declared themfelves oppofed to the conftitution, and imprudently omitting to vote for men who are known to have a due regard for it. The election of two gentlemen of the oppofition as Senators for Virginia, in preference to a Madifon, fhould alfo be a leffon to us this day.

It is hoped the fœderalifts will THIS DAY be active, and adhere firmly to their caufe. It will be in vain that they have difcuffed and defended the conftitution, if they relinquifh it at the important crifis of the election. Let no man ftay at home, but let each manfully do his own duty, and exhort his neighbour to the fame. An omiffion cannot be repaired, perhaps for ever. Not one unfavourable vote will be with-held in the counties which are oppofed to the conftitution—not one favourable one fhould be with-held here. Let us take care we dont rue to-morrow the inactivity of to-day. With proper exertion we can eafily bear up the conftitution on the fhoulders of the people, for they are furely on its fide.

We are informed his Excellency Edmund Randolph, Efq; refigns the honors and emoluments of the government of Virginia, to be capable of election as a member of the ftate legiflature, for the purpofe of explaining and defending the fœderal conftitution.—Our friends will permit us to exhort them by this noble example, not to think hard of facrificing THIS ONE DAY to the fervice of their country, by the eftablifhment of the conftitution.

Many of the citizens being unacquainted with the character of Thomas Scott, Efq; who is in the fœderal ticket, the following circumftances will ferve to prove his manly difintereffed fpirit. When he came to Philadelphia to the State Convention, being of a very deliberative temper and of an inveftigating mind, he had not come to a fixed opinion with regard to the great queftion of adoption. Some doubts exifted in the oppofition about his vote, and (from whom it came we know not) but the night before the final queftion was taken, he received an anonymous letter, cautioning him about his vote, and carrying the idea of his lofing the office he held in the county, if it fhould be favorable to the conftitution. He fpoke publicly of the fact the next day, voted for the adoption, and figned the ratification. This gentleman refides in the fame diftrict with Mr. Findley, and it may be prefumed they are this day to be confidered as competitors. Our correfpondent afks, will any ferious fœderalift hefitate to prefer Mr. Scott, with fo much virtue, deliberation and firmnefs.

Of all the candidates for this day's election, none have paid fuch attention to the fubject of manufactures as George Clymer, Efq;—none was a more early or capital lender of money to the United States—none more deep in our actual commerce, than Thomas Fitzfimons, Efq;—none have had more city and commercial appointments than they—nature has done much for them, experience much alfo.

An old Public Creditor is for running in the ticket this day the man who fold his own dwelling-houfe in the beginning of 1777, and put the money into the funds.----- Give me the man, fays he, who made himfelf poorer by the funds, not he that made himfelf richer by them.

A Manufacturer obferves, he does not find any Manufacturers in the feveral tickets propofed, but thinks that George Clymer, Efq; has had good opportunities in that way in the Philadelphia Society, being one of the managers, and hopes the Manufacturers in general will give him their votes. They will want men of fkill and zeal in the Fœderal Houfe of Repreffentatives, whether they be fœderal or anti-fœderal themfelves.

A friend of peace does not like the Harrifburg ticket. That meeting rofe from violence. He remembers that fame Stony Ridge Convention, which called that meeting, declared that the Blood of the Fœderalifts would not fatisfy them, and held even their minifters at nought---- and therefore thinks it would be prudent at this time to omit electing any of the men firft put in nomination by them---fuch as Robert Whitehill, William Findley, Charles Pettit, &c. Befides, he objects ftrongly to the ticket formed there, becaufe it contains the names of feveral of the members of that meeting, who have therefore elected themfelves. This no free elector can poffibly like.

The Lancafter conference did not propofe any of themfelves, which looks much more impartial, and our correfpondent, who fays he is not any way in the fecret, likes this much better. Being a plain man, he begs to be indulged in expreffing his fears, that the Harrifburg buffinefs was a plan to fecure their own elections. He therefore thinks it would be more advifable at this time for the citizens to give their votes for Thomas Fitzfimons and George Clymer, who were not at Lancafter, than for Charles Pettit and Blair M'Clenachan, who were both at Harrifbugh.

Fœderalifts, remember all your endeavours—all your anxieties.—Do not hazard the conftitution you have thus labored to eftablifh,—by giving your votes for any perfon who is known to oppofe the conftitution. Virginia, you fee, has fent to the Fœderal Senate two gentlemen who are unfriendly to the new conftitution.—Look at the reafons of diffent of the Pennfylvania minority in Convention—look at the members of the Harrifburg meeting—all thofe whofe names appear to thofe papers muft be confidered as enemies of the fœderal conftitution. Let no fpecious reafoning, or affections, prejudices, or reffentments, lead you to vote for any but a fœderalift.

At a Town-Meeting, held at the State-Houfe on the Evening of the 24th of November, 1788.

JOHN WILCOCKS, Efquire, in the Chair.

JAMES WILSON and GEORGE LATIMER, Efquires, who were appointed to meet the Conferees from the other counties in this ftate, for the purpofe of forming a Ticket for the Repreffentatives of this ftate in the Houfe of Repreffentatives of the United States, reported the following Gentlemen, viz. George Clymer, Thomas Fitzfimons, Frederick A. Muhlenberg, Thomas Hartley, Henry Wynkoop, Stephen Chambers, John Allifon and Thomas Scott, Efquires, which met the unanimous approbation of the Meeting.

On motion, Refolved, That the thanks of the Meeting be given to JAMES WILSON and GEORGE LATIMER, Efquires, for their execution of the important truft committed to them as Conferees at Lancafter.

Adjourned. RICHARD FULLERTON, Sec'ry.

On Tuefday afternoon laft, the remains of James Potts, Efquire, Counfellor at law of Pottfgrove, were interred in the Friend's burial ground, attended by many refpectable inhabitants and brother practitioners of the law. The many focial virtues and good qualities of this worthy gentleman, render his lofs very affecting to his furviving friends and relatives. It may be juftly faid of Mr. Potts, that he was what was once aferted on a fimilar occafion, in faithful remembrance of a predeceffor in the practice of the law in England:

'God works wonders now and then,
Here lies a Lawyer and an Honeft Man.'

On Monday evening the 10th inftant, came on at Wilmington, on Delaware, one of the heavieft ftorms of wind ever known at that place, which lafted till Tuefday about noon.—A number of cattle were drowned in the meadows in the neighbourhood. The Broad Dykes, in the road to Newcaftle, were carried away, and a man attempting to pafs, was unfortunately drowned.

Extract of a letter from Bermuda, dated the 22d of laft month.

"This morning, about 8 o'clock, the brig Good Intent, Capt. Robert Lindan, of Briftol, 43 days from that port, bound to Baltimore, ran on the reef near the weft end of this ifland, in a ftrong gale; but by the affiftance of a number of boats and men, fhe was got off the rocks, and on Thurfday evening brought into harbour with the lofs of her rudder, and a part of the falt fhe had on board, which was thrown overboard to lighten her, while on the reef."

The fhip Iris, Capt. Thomas Cole, from Amfterdam; arrived at Baltimore, on her paffage fpoke the following veffels:—October 17th, the fhip Hercules, Hugh Ruffell, mafter, from New York, bound to Antigua, 6 days out, lat. 34. 21. o. Philad. Nov. 22, 1788.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 28th of August last, a likely mulatto fellow, about 21 years of age, square and well made, with a small scar on his forehead; he had on, when he went away, an old jean coat, new fustian waistcoat, new Osnaburg breeches, shoes and stockings. As he has been bred up altogether as a house servant, he, for a livelihood, will probably hire himself either in a tavern, or to some private gentleman, his colour being such as to favor his scheme of freedom. Any person, on delivering him to me, on Bull-skin-run, Berkely county, Virginia, shall, if taken out of the state, have a reward of Fifty Dollars, and if in Thirty, besides what the law allows. He has travelled with me to New-York and the West-Indies, and will probably endeavour to get to one of those places.

To be Sold, or exchanged for Property in or near the city of Philadelphia,

A GRIST-MILL and SAW-MILL, situate in Upper Merion township and county of Montgomery, both on a never failing stream of water, within half a mile of the Gulph mill, the dam and banks are well secured. The Grist mill is double geared, has one pair of French burrs and one pair of country stones, three boulting chests, two of the boulting cloths new, being put on within these three months, is in good repair and fitted for making superfine flour, in a good neighbourhood for getting wheat, as well as procuring what may come down Schuylkill, being but half a mile from it. The Saw-mill is in good order, almost new, and may be worked to profit.

Appertaining thereto are about 24 acres of land, consisting of two apple orchards of grafted fruit, one of 100, the other of 150 trees, 8 or 9 acres of excellent meadow, a garden paled in, and 4 or 5 acres of woodland. On this plantation are a dwelling-house, a stone barn 30 by 40 feet, shingled with cedar and fitted with mows, will conveniently stable 6 cows and 3 horses, has a good threshing floor, and will hold near 20 tons of hay. There are likewise a stone cave, with a smoak-house at top and a cooper's shop. For terms of sale apply to Thomas Kinsey, on the premises, or to Samuel Robeson, in Vine near Front-street.

N. B. If the mills, &c. are not sold before the 20th of January next, they will be let. Nov. 28, 1788. †

Intelligence and Broker's-Office,

November 3, 1788.

THE subscribers have opened an intelligence and broker's-office in Third-street, between Market and Chesnut-streets, where they buy and sell certificates and paper money of every denomination, bills of exchange on England, Holland, France, &c. bank stock, and all other kinds of transferable property.

They discount bills and notes. Procure cash immediately on approved notes, or any kind of deposits.

Country people and others may be accommodated with the exact sums in certificates and state money wich they may want for the land office; also may have their warrants carried through on moderate terms.

Persons wanting to purchase or sell any kind of goods, lands, farms, lots or houses, horses and carriages of any sort, may register their business in said office, and have the earliest notice of the highest price, or of those who want to purchase or sell.

Book-keepers, clerks, schoolmasters (desirous to settle in the country) barkeepers, hostlers, gentlemens servants, waiters, tradesmen of every profession, wet and dry nurses, housekeepers, seamstresses, chamber and kitchen maids, men and women cooks, servant boys and girls, may hear of employments, and employers be furnished with any of the above description.

Those who have houses, rooms, lodgings or boarding to let, may hear of persons wanting such; and those who want such, may be supplied by applying at said office.

All applicants relative to employmets, are to pay down one-eighth of a dollar on their names being registered, and as much more, when served according to their desire.

It is necessary that those who apply for employment produce their characters in writing.

Every transaction will be kept secret if required.

The utility of a general intelligence-office has been so manifest as to induce the present undertakers to hope for the encouragement of the public, especially as they are determined to pay the strictest attention to the commands of their employers, and to render the office as useful as possible.

4 w CAVENOUGH & HART.

Wanted to purchase for a term of years, a healthy negroe or mulatto woman, between 18 and 30 years of age. Enquire at the intelligence-office. The cash will be paid down.

TO BE SOLD,

A VALUABLE Plantation, lying in Gallaway township, Gloucester county, state of New-Jersey, containing by estimation about 550 acres of land, marsh and cedar swamp, about 200 acres of which is excellent salt meadow, which is favored with fresh water springs sufficient to supply a hundred head of cattle, and about 100 acres of fresh meadow may be made with a very small expence, not exceeding twenty pounds in banking, and about 60 acres of cleared land and more may easily be cleared, the rest well timbered; there are on said premises a two story frame house and barn, a small apple orchard of good bearing trees. It is allowed to be an excellent place for a large stock, as the meadow all joins the upland. The place itself is situated in an excellent stand for a store, as there is none kept within many miles of the place, and there has been one kept there for 20 years past, it is within the compass of three miles of two good landings, and within a mile and three quarters of two or more saw-mills, which renders it suitable for both or either calling as may best suit the purchaser. Any person inclining to purchase said plantation may have peaceable possession by the first day of March next, with an indisputable title, where credit will be given, and payment made easy, by ANDREW MILLER, living in Greenwich, Cumberland county, state of New-Jersey.

N. B. Any person wanting to know the value and quality of said plantation may, by viewing the premises, or applying to Joseph Stone, Surveyor, in Haddonfield, or Richard Wood, sen. of Greenwich, or James Scull, adjoining the lands. For further particulars enquire of the subscriber.
